HAUPTMANN FUNDS SWELLED AFTER THE LINDBERGH TRAGEDY

Couple Had But $203.92 In Bank On 2nd of April In 1932

RECORDS ARE SHOWN

By September, 1934, Had Put $16,942.25 in Brokerage Acct.; $9,073.25 in Bank

By Dorothy Kilgallen
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

COURT ROOM, FLEMINGTON, N. J., Jan. 21.—Bruno Richard Hauptmann and his wife Anna had $203.92 cash in the bank on April 2, 1932, the day the Lindbergh ransom was paid. In addition they had stocks which had dwindled in value to only $100.

Such was the testimony today of William E. Frank, U. S. government accountant of the Revenue Bureau. He was the first witness of the day.

But, from April 2, 1932, until September 19, 1934, when Hauptmann was arrested, a total of $16,942.25 was put into the defendant's brokerage account and $9,073.25 in cash was deposited in banks during that period, to the credit of the Hauptmanns.

Asked by Attorney General David T. Wilentz how much cash Mr. and Mrs. Hauptmann had in their name on April 2, 1932, Frank, who had made a study of their accounts, consulted his files and replied:

"They had $203.92 in the Central Savings Bank."

Wilentz then wanted to know what stocks they had in their name on April 2, 1932, and Frank replied, "Mr. and Mrs. Hauptmann had 50 shares of Warner Brothers stocks which they purchased for $987.50, but which had dropped in value and were worth only $100 on the day of the ransom payment, because the stock was down to $2.00 a share."

Wilentz dwelt on this phase of Hauptmann's finances. He was attempting to show the sudden wealth that Hauptmann allegedly attained from April 2, 1932.

Q. (By Wilentz)—On April 2, 1932, the total cash and stock holdings of the Hauptmanns was $203.92 and $100 in stocks?

A.—Yes. Frederick A. Pope, of defense counsel objected vigorously to the line of questioning, but was overruled.

Q.—Now, Mr. Frank, can you tell us how much money was put into the brokerage account in the name of Hauptmann and his wife from April 2, 1932, the date of the kidnapping until September 19, 1934, when Hauptmann was arrested?

A.—Yes. The records show this figure to be $16,942.25.

Q.—And how much cash was deposited in Hauptmann's name in banks during that period?

A.—$9,073.25.

COURT ROOM, FLEMINGTON, N. J., Jan. 21.—Hauptmann is unafraid. He expects acquittal. He thinks the State has failed to prove he kidnapped the Lindbergh baby. He feels now, with the end of the prosecution case in sight, victory is his.

"I am anxious to take the stand. I have listened to a lot of lies in that Court Room, now I would like to do my own talking and tell what is really the truth," Hauptmann declared today in an interview through his counsel, C. Lloyd Fisher. "I want a chance to say I didn't kill that baby."

"Do you think the jury will believe you?" he was asked.

"Yes."

"Are you worried about facing cross-examination?"

"Not a bit," replied Hauptmann in his strange voice. "I have been waiting a long time to tell my story. They can ask me anything, I am not afraid."

FLEMINGTON, N. J., Jan. 21.—(INS)—Bruno Richard Hauptmann and his wife, Anna, will both be subjected to a raking cross-examination when they are on the stand this week as first witnesses for the defense.

DENY OPPOSITION TO 30-HR. WEEK

Pittsburgh, Jan. 21.—An emphatic denial that steel mill employees generally were opposed to a 30-hour week, was voiced here today by Michael F. Pighe, president of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers. His denial was a reply to a statement issued from New York by the American Iron and Steel Institute picturing the workers as fearful that reduced hours would bring back wage cuts and pictured consumers as wary of the resultant price boosts.

AWAIT COURT'S DECISION

Washington, D. C., Jan. 21.—As the nine justices of the Supreme Court mounted the bench to hand down opinions today, speculation was rife over prospects of the decisions of the all-important "gold cases." A decision after the case has been under consideration for only nine days, would set a record for speed, but some observers expressed the belief the Court would decide the case and end the uncertainty which has caused the jitters in financial circles. With five gold cases before the Court there was a possibility of a speedy decision.

MAIS GANG ON WAY TO PHILA.

New York City, Jan. 21.—Robert Mais, and his big shot mob, shattered by a Federal agents' raid last Friday, was reported today enroute under heavy guard to Philadelphia, where they were scheduled to face a grilling by police eager for a solution of the disappearance of William Weiss, persistently reported in underworld channels as slain by a kidnap gang. Rumors, as yet unconfirmed, that the squeaky-voiced killer and jail breaker had confessed to participation in the slaying of Weiss in a Philadelphia suburb after collecting only a fraction of the $100,000 ransom demanded, persisted today. The reputed confession was reported to have implicated Edwin Gale and Marty Farrell, henchmen of Mais and Walter Legenza, his chief aid, but to have exonerated his sweetheart, Mary McKeever, of any connection with the kidnapping.

VESSEL CALLS FOR HELP

Hallifax, Nova Scotia, Jan. 21.—Her engine room and fuel tanks in flames the Scotch oil tanker Zalzerde, flashed a call for immediate assistance today approximately 800 miles south of the United States. The boats over the engine room are burning. The brief S.O.S. stated immediate help is needed. Several vessels are enroute to her aid.

HOUSE REPUBLICANS INTRODUCE 32 BILLS

Steal March On Democrats Who Are Completing The Legislative Program

BACK UP THE PLATFORM

By Robert F. Gorman

I. N. S. Staff Correspondent
HARRISBURG, Jan. 21.—(INS)—Stealing a march on Democrats who are awaiting completion of an administration legislative program, the Republican House majority already has introduced 32 bills covering nearly every plank in the 1934 G. O. P. campaign platform.

Half a dozen or so additional Republican platform measures are expected to make their appearance within a few days. Those which have been introduced are waiting consideration by Democratic-controlled committees.

Coupled with announcement that the Republican legislative program was ready for action by the House, minority leaders promised to utilize every parliamentary procedure available to bring their bills to the floor for a vote. The rule of 85, permitting discharge of a committee on favorable vote of 85 members, will be invoked in every instance where a committee fails to report a Republican bill, it was stated.

"Program" bills still in a state of preparation include milk control, unemployment relief, unemployment insurance and anti-dumping measures. Those already introduced cover a wide field of governmental activity.

Election changes in the program include permanent registration for Philadelphia and third class cities and limitation of personal campaign expenditures to a sliding scale in which $15,000 for gubernatorial candidates would be the maximum.

SERVES AS S. S. SUP'T. FOR PERIOD OF 25 YEARS

Doron Green Honored As He Starts His 26th Year

MEMBER 64 YEARS

Rounding out 25 years of continuous service as superintendent of the Bristol M. E. Church School, Doron Green yesterday was presented with a ring and a pin, both having Masonic emblems, as tokens of appreciation for his quarter of a century of service.

The presentation was a complete surprise to Mr. Green who unintentionally came near spoiling the affair by absenting himself from the service. It is not often that Mr. Green is absent from the sessions of the church school, but yesterday not feeling particularly well, planned to rest. As the time for the presentation drew near he was summoned to the school.

The presentation was made by Harry Ranck, assistant superintendent, on behalf of the officers, teachers and scholars of the school. Mr. Ranck in a few well chosen words expressed the appreciation of the donors for the services of Mr. Green, a man who has been unusually faithful and attentive to his duties.

It was brought out that Mr. Green has rounded out 25 years as superintendent of the school and on Wednesday night was elected for the 26th consecutive time. He became affiliated with the school when three years of age and has been a member of the school for 64 years, being very regular in his attendance. He has held office in the school for 49 years and has never wavered in his devotion to his duties.

Receiving the gifts from his co-workers, Mr. Green was at a loss for words in which to express his appreciation. He did, however, thank the donors and told them that he sincerely appreciated their gifts.

The presentations were made at the close of the school session.

Garbo Gives An Inspired Portrayal in 'Painted Veil'

If there has been any doubt about Greta Garbo's long-standing reputation as the greatest film star of them all, it has been definitely settled by her newest production, "The Painted Veil," which opens tonight at the Grand Theatre.

In "The Painted Veil," a tensely dramatic story of marital conflict in the heart of a cholera-plagued province in the Chinese interior, Garbo rises to greater heights than in any of her previous pictures.

As Katherine Fane, the bride of a serious-minded British doctor who combats the Chinese cholera, Garbo appears more glamorous, and a finer dramatic actress than ever before.

The picture, too, gives her a new leading man, Herbert Marshall. Marshall's role of the jealous husband is a difficult one and he plays it in masterful fashion.

Unique Musical Comedy Ready for Presentation

There is a gay lilt to the unique musical comedy "Crazy Politics" which is to be presented Thursday and Friday in Mutual Aid Hall at 8.15 p. m., for benefit of American Legion Cadets.

Flashy newspaper headlines, snappy newspaper reporters, pepped-up politicians and beautiful chorus girls portray in a sure fire exciting plot the efforts of the People's Party to drive out racketeering in Centerville through the appeal of a song and dance campaign.

Clarence Powell shows how the versatile newspaper reporter (Pat O'Donnell) can impersonate Mrs. Courtney Van Dyne as the future mayor of Centerville. Mrs. H. A. Ross and Edward McIlwaine work out the "hot news" headlines. Bill Gallagher and Ronald Swain are distracted politicians who are placed in a hopeless situation. Frank Phipps, Cyril Heaton and George Hoffman struggle along with skirts and wigs in the attempt to act as ladies.

Helen Morganti, Mrs. Todd, Evelyn Fechtenburg and Alice Ludwig are very much provoked at the peculiar behavior of "their" men.

Wayne Fry shows how "Able Goldberg" will run de town. And the fair sex of Bristol steps in to relieve the tenseness of the situation with peppy songs and snappy dancing.

Songs, dances, colorful costumes, funny love scenes, brilliant wit—all are going to be starred in the performance. Tickets are on reserve at Strauss's Cut Rate store, Mill street.

MR. MICAWBER and the beautiful budget

"My other piece of advice, Copperfield," said Mr. Micawber, "you know. Annual income twenty pounds, annual expenditure nineteen nineteen six, result happiness. Annual income twenty pounds, annual expenditure twenty pounds, aught and six, result misery. The blossom is blighted, the leaf is withered, the God of day goes down upon the dreary scene, and—in short you are for ever floored. As I am!"

Take it from Mr. Micawber, or from any one of thousands who know it for the truth, there's no friend like cash! And there's no way to be so certain of cash as to spend within your budget.

Begin today! Say to yourself—so much will go for food, so much for rent, so much for fuel, so much for charity. Stick within your budget and you'll find it bountiful enough to leave you something over!

One of the very best ways to budget as you go is to read the advertisements in this newspaper. Daily, as in a parade, the good values of the good stores march before you. Roast beef or chops for Sunday dinners, a special style in men's shirts, new drapes for the living-room... the advertisements will help you choose them all, and often at a saving!

HEATING HINTS .. by John Barclay

IN A recent letter a reader asks: "What is the most important thing to look for when the furnace has a good fire in it but the rooms are not warm enough?" There is one "thing" that will always account for such a condition, but there are at least thirty "things" that may be wrong in a case like this. Some of these things may be quickly and easily remedied by a man who is handy around the house; others require more specialized skill. Some of the faults may be easily located, while others may pass unnoticed unless the man seeking them is familiar with heating systems.

Sometimes the Check Damper is in the wrong place; or the Turn Damper handle may have slipped, giving a false position of the damper; or the regulator may be improperly adjusted; or there may be an excessive amount of soot in the smoke-pipe or on the boiler surfaces; or the radiators may be improperly pitched; or the draft may be impeded. Perhaps a loose bolt, or rusty joint may be the cause of wasted heat. All of these things can be quickly adjusted by a competent service man. (13)

Hauptmann Funds Swelled After Lindbergh Tragedy

ter this is done, Attorney Lloyd Fish-er will make the opening statement of the defense to the jury. Then Haupt-mann will be called to the stand. Hauptmann will go on first thing in the morning, either Wednesday or Thursday, according to present indications. Chief defense counsel Edward J. Reilly wants the defendant to be fresh and rested when he starts the ordeal of telling his own story from the stand—a story the world is waiting with interest to hear.

Reilly plans to have Hauptmann tell his story in his own words and then the lawyer will question him concerning any details he may omit. His direct testimony is likely to occupy an entire day.

The prosecution is preparing to go after Hauptmann hammer and tongs. They are certain they can tear down any story he may tell. They say Hauptmann has made 76 specific contradictions in statements he made to the police.

Hauptmann's alibi that he was home on the night of the kidnapping will be attacked during the cross-examination. He will be forced to explain in detail why $15,000 of the Lindbergh ransom was found in his possession. The prosecution will ask him all about his criminal record in Germany, a subject concerning which the defendant is very touchy. There will be no sparing of his feelings.

Mrs. Hauptmann will also face a verbal fight with the prosecution.

In the field of social legislation, bills have been offered to eliminate sweatshops and give the Department of Labor and Industry authority to regulate "outwork," to reduce the maximum weekly working hours for women from 54 to 44, to repeal the industrial police act and to prohibit deputy sheriffs from being paid by anyone except the county, and to amend the workmen's compensation law to include occupational diseases within its scope.

Miracle Man of the Turf

By BURNLEY

HIRSCH JACOBS IS THE GREATEST TRAINER IN MODERN TURF HISTORY. HE HAS WON THE TRAINING HONORS FOR 2 YEARS IN A ROW—WITH ONLY MEDIOCRE HORSES. WIN ONE FOR ME! OK! HE HAS SCORED MORE THAN 100 WINNERS FOR 2 STRAIGHT YEARS.

Having led all the American trainers for the second straight year, Hirsch Jacobs, famous conditioner of thoroughbreds, is looking forward to sending lots of winners to the post in 1935. The chubby horseman, who chalked up in the neighborhood of 130 winners last year, is second on the all-time list, with a total of nearly 500 winning horses to his credit since 1928.

Only an unfortunate slump that parked at his stable late last Fall prevented Jacobs from setting a new winning record in 1934. The mark that he just missed topping was set by C. B. "Cowboy" Irwin in 1923. Considering the fact that most of Jacobs' horses are of the cheaper variety—the stables which he trains boast of no Cavalcades or Equipolises—his remarkable victory totals loom as really amazing feats.

The jovial turf magician has been stabled at Hialeah Park in Miami this Winter, where he is running some 31 thoroughbreds, the property of Isadore Bieber's B. B. stable, Mr. and Mrs. Damon Runyon and William N. Adrians.

In 1933 Jacobs ran up a total of 116 winners to lead the parade of trainers. Only three other trainers have scored more than 100 wins in a year—H. G. Bedwell, with 123 in 1916; F. Ernest, 105 in 1910, and, of course, the record-holder Irwin, with his classic mark of 147 in '23.

Jacobs speaks well of Mrs. Damon Runyon's judgment in buying thoroughbreds. He points out that the charming wife of the famous sports writer scored a ten-strike when she purchased Angelic at a bargain figure as a yearling in 1932. Angelic proved the best juvenile of the Miami season last Winter.

Jacobs is now enthusing over another of Mrs. Runyon's bargain buys, a filly named So Sorry, for which she paid only $250. So Sorry may turn out to be the biggest "steal" of the Spa auctions.
